U. N. Committee Planning Agenda

General Policy Debate Postponed One Day

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Steering Committee of the United Nations General Assembly headed into an agenda loaded with bitter world problems today as postponement of an expected U. S. pronouncement on Korea delayed opening of the world meeting's general policy debate.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, here for yesterday's opening of the Assembly's seventh session, had been expected to launch the debate today with a demand that the 60-nation body appeal to the Communists for an armistice in Korea on U. N. terms.

However, a spokesman for the delegation said Acheson had decided to "get the feel of the Assembly" before delivering the speech, on which he reportedly still was working. The U. S. delay resulted in cancellation of both Assembly sessions originally scheduled for today.

The continued fighting and the stalled truce negotiations in Korea cast dark shadows here as the most pressing problem facing the U. N. Speakers at yesterday's Assembly opening spoke gloomily of the growing threat to the foundations of the world organization.

The Steering Committee begins its consideration of the agenda this morning. Ernest A. Gross will represent the United States on the committee.

Canada's Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson, elected yesterday to the presidency of the Assembly, said at a news conference that he hoped the agenda could be drawn up quickly.

Another controversial issue which has all sides sparring is the airing of Tunisian and Moroccan demands that France grant more self-rule to the people of those two North African protectorates.

France says the question is purely an internal one and any discussion in the U. N. might hinder negotiations already going on. The U. S. supported the French last year, but had indicated it will reverse its stand to the extent of agreeing that the question should be put on the agenda for debate.

U. S. Infantrymen Smash Over Top Of Triangle Hill

Ike's Income In 10 Years Set At $888,303

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower had a gross income of $888,303—including $635,000 from his book, "Crusade in Europe"—during the past 10 years, his headquarters says.

A financial statement made public here late yesterday showed the Republican presidential candidate paid $217,082 in taxes.

Subtraction of these taxes and allowable deductions from the gross income, the statement said, left Eisenhower with a net of $643,148 for the 10 years. His net without the book was $166,898.

Eisenhower's revelation followed a similar financial statement last month by his Democratic opponent, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson.

Stevenson listed his gross income for the last 10 years as $500,046 and his taxes as $211,980, leaving him $288,066.

The Republican candidate's financial statement was released here by his executive assistant, Arthur Vandenberg Jr. Eisenhower currently is campaigning in the South.

Vandenberg also gave out a letter he received from Eisenhower authorizing release of the financial data. The general said in the letter:

"I am now, in every sense of the word, a private citizen, and without income except from investments."

Vandenberg distributed copies of correspondence Eisenhower had with U. S. Treasury officials in 1947 and 1948. This correspondence resulted in an agreement whereby Eisenhower qualified as a non-profit individual writer and was allowed to list income from the book as a capital gain.

If Eisenhower had paid at the personal income tax rate rather than the capital gains rate, his tax on the proceeds from the book might possibly have been more than double the $158,750 he paid. His net in the book was $476,250.

Eisenhower's financial statement listed his and his wife's joint income, in addition to the book, in two parts.

Covered in the first part were his six years in wartime and post-war military service that ended Dec. 31, 1947. His income for these years was listed as $59,976, mostly in salaries. He had $47,453 left after taxes and allowable deductions.

The second part covered the four years ended last Dec. 31, during which time Eisenhower spent nearly three years as president of Columbia University plus a year of service as North Atlantic Treaty Organization commander in Europe.

For these four years, Eisenhower listed an income exclusive of his book of $193,327. He paid $48,616 in taxes, he said, leaving $119,444 after taxes and deductions.

Mullins Net Income Declines This Year

A net income of $2,466,745 for the nine months ending Sept. 30, 1952 was reported by Mullins Manufacturing Corp. of Salem and Warren today.

The earnings were equal to $1.80 per share of common stock. Sales from the company's products during the nine months amounted to $39,343,524. Provision for federal tax on income was $2,575,200.

For the comparable period last year Mullins' net income was $3,225,215 on sales of $45,788,437. Provision for federal taxes for the first six months of 1952 was $4,611,400.

2 Indicted For Having Warren Holdup Money

CLEVELAND (AP)—Julius Petro and Joe Sanzo have been indicted by a Cuyahoga County grand jury on charges of receiving money taken in the $71,000 stickup of a Warren bank official Aug. 14.

A federal grand jury also is considering charges against the pair and has issued a summons for them.

They could get seven years in prison if convicted in the county case and another 20 years if convicted under a federal law.

Ike Strives To Smash Dem Hold On Solid South

Blasts Truman In Texas Tour; Offers Leadership For Peace

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower strove mightily today to smash the Democratic hold on the Solid South while holding out a promise of leadership which would provide a firm base on which to build lasting world peace.

For the second straight day he rampaged through his home state of Texas blasting at the Truman administration with scorn and sarcasm.

His accusation was the clear implication at least that the Truman leadership had failed to win the respect of America's allies and even the Kremlin. And he said these were necessary if peace is to be won.

Given Birthday Receptions

Warmed by a series of rousing birthday receptions yesterday—his 62nd birthday—the general aimed his fire on Ft. Worth and Dallas today. Then he will fly into Tennessee for speeches at Memphis and Knoxville before returning to New York.

He chose the Alamo in San Antonio—the birthplace of Texas independence—from Mexico—to outline his views last night on how best to achieve peace.

But before he spoke, Texas Gov. Allan Shivers called him the candidate who stands for the Democratic principles that Texans respect.

Shivers said there were many Texans who never before had voted for a candidate "who wore any other mantle but that of the Democratic party."

Decision Not Sasy

He said: "Our decision to depart from tradition has not been an easy one. It had to be based on issues and concepts more fundamental than party regularity. It had to be strong enough to overcome the accumulated prejudices of many decades..."

Then he added his belief that Eisenhower rather than Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson could best capitalize on social gains — "meanwhile ruthlessly shearing away the red tape, ousting the bunglers, eradicating the Communists and socialists."

Police estimated that from 15,000 to 20,000 people gathered in the Alamo Plaza to hear Eisenhower. In the process of outlining his peace program, the general took this swipe at Truman:

"If we Americans do not fully respect our own leadership, you can be certain that this leadership will have diminished prestige abroad. And, unless our leadership is respected abroad, it will neither be trusted nor freely followed."

"Our capacity to influence other nations will be frittered away. Can you blame the peoples who dwell in the shadow of the Kremlin for failing to understand the kind of leadership that could still say, in 1948, of a ruthless dictator: 'I like old Uncle Joe. He is a decent fellow.'" (This was a reference to a statement by Truman in 1948).

Two men in a car overhauled them. The unmasked gunman got in the front seat, between Young and Sondra, and forced the grocer to drive onto the lonely road and stop. Jean, Judy and Michael were ordered to lie on the floor in the rear of the car.

Here, Sondra began faltering under the strain of trying to remember. But she did recall seeing her father forced to lie on the road while the men tied his hands behind his back. And that little Michael darted from the car, only to be caught by one of the men.

That's as far as Sondra could go yesterday.

Janes hopes she can tell more today.

First Town Hall Speaker

Vogeler To Appear Here Wednesday

Robert A. Vogeler, the American business man who was held prisoner by the Communists in Hungary for 17 months before his dramatic liberation, today agreed to open Salem's 10th season of Town Hall Meetings next Wednesday in the High School auditorium.

His talk at 8:15 that evening is expected to attract an overflow crowd and give the Town Hall an auspicious beginning for the new winter series.

Mr. Vogeler, who was pale and shaken after his "17 months of despair" behind the Iron Curtain, will speak here on the subject, "The Meaning of Freedom."

Miss Mary Bowman, secretary of the Town Hall Committee, announced that five other Town Hall meetings have been scheduled to run through next March.

Now recovered from his ordeal as a Red prisoner in Hungary, Mr. Vogeler takes time from his executive duties with the International Telephone & Telegraph Co. to continue his inspiring talks to American audiences.

Charged With Espionage

It was in November of 1949 that Mr. Vogeler was arrested by Kremlinsdominated Hungarian authorities on charges of "espionage, sabotage and conspiracy against the Hungarian government."

He was held incommunicado at the headquarters of the Hungarian secret police. After psychological and physical pressures and a trial, he was sentenced to 15 years in prison and kept in solitary confinement. After prolonged negotiations the Hungarian government exacted a heavy price for Mr. Vogeler's release. He was finally freed April 18, 1951, and he walked across the Hungarian border into the waiting arms of his wife, Lucille, and two children.

Public free-will contributions help support the Town Hall meetings.

Girl Describes Killers Of Four

Sondra Young Revives From Brutal Beating

CHESTER, Calif. (AP)—Sondra Young, 3½, yesterday described two men as the killers of her father, two sisters and a little playmate in a $7,128 robbery-massacre.

Sondra herself was brutally bludgeoned and left for dead—thrown across the bodies of the four victims in the trunk of her father's automobile.

Reviving for a time from the coma and shock of a fractured skull, Sondra said one of the assailants was bald and masked; the other unmasked and carrying a gun. She said both wore green shirts, blue jeans and black shoes, and drove a big blue car.

Dist. Atty. Bertrand Jones talked with her in a hospital, then took her and her mother to the massacre scene on a lonely logging road. He said Sondra related:

Her father, Guard Young, 43, obtained money ($7,128) from a Westwood bank last Friday to cash loggers' checks at his grocery store here Saturday. He bought the children popcicles and candy, then started home to Chester, 14 miles away.

The trip was a treat for the children: Sondra's sisters Jean, 7, and Judy, 6, and a neighbor, Michael Saile, 4—all slain, and Sondra.

Two men in a car overhauled them. The unmasked gunman got in the front seat, between Young and Sondra, and forced the grocer to drive onto the lonely road and stop. Jean, Judy and Michael were ordered to lie on the floor in the rear of the car.

Here, Sondra began faltering under the strain of trying to remember. But she did recall seeing her father forced to lie on the road while the men tied his hands behind his back. And that little Michael darted from the car, only to be caught by one of the men.

That's as far as Sondra could go yesterday.

Janes hopes she can tell more today.

Gls In Savage, Inch-By-Inch Battle On Slope

Chinese Reds Resist Fiercely; U. S. Holds Mock Korean Landing

SEOUL (AP)—American infantrymen smashed over the top of Triangle Hill on Korea's Central Front today and fought a savage inch-by-inch battle down the Northern slope. Two miles to the east, more than 1,000 Reds counter-attacked troops of the South Korean Second Division on Sniper Ridge.

AP correspondent Milo Farneti said U. S. Seventh Division infantrymen on Triangle were pushing single-file down a Communist trench leading to towering Papsan Mountain, immediately to the north.

A front-line officer said they were "fighting for every inch" against fiercely resisting Chinese Reds.

A late report from the front said close-quarter fighting swirled around the ridgeline.

The South Koreans seized Pinpoint earlier today with flame throwers and hand grenades.

Many Committed Suicide
U. S. officers with the South Koreans said many of the dead Chinese found on Pinpoint had committed suicide.

Seventeen miles to the west, South Korean 9th Division troops blasted the Reds with high explosives from their last hold on blood-soaked White Horse Mountain.

Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters in Tokyo announced that thousands of U. S. soldiers staged a mock amphibious attack on North Korea's sensitive East Coast. Navy and Air Force planes supported the armada. The announcement said, "An actual landing was not planned or carried out."

The brunt of the Korean fighting shifted from White Horse in the West to the Central Front.

Battle-hardened veterans of the 7th Division's 31st Regiment stormed back to the top of Triangle just before noon.

AFL Pottery Workers Get 5% Wage Hike

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. (AP)—Twenty-seven thousand AFL pottery workers will have pay increases of about five per cent included in their checks the last pay day before Christmas.

This was announced today by Joseph M. Wells, chairman of the U. S. Potters Association, which represents makers of about 80 per cent of the nation's dinnerware. He said the increase averages eight cents an hour.

The raise was agreed upon in New York City by the manufacturers and negotiators of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters (AFL), which has members in 11 states and Canada.

Only wages were under discussion, since the working contract does not expire until Oct. 1, 1953.

Wells said the date the increase becomes effective varies because pottery workers have pay days on different dates. In all cases, he said, the effective date is two weeks previous to the pay day before Christmas.

The increases, Wells estimated, will cost the pottery industry between 2½ and three million dollars yearly.

Truman Renews Whistle-Stops

Heads For Critical N. York, N. England

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman fires up his campaign train special again tonight for a three-day speaking foray into political critical New York and New England.

The White House indicated the 68-year-old Chief Executive will be drumming on the road for the Democratic presidential candidate, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, almost until the eve of the Nov. 4 election.

Truman hardly has had time to get his laundry in order since returning Sunday from a 15-day, 8,500-mile whistle-stop tour on which he made 90 speeches.

He conferred late yesterday at the White House with the party's Finance Committee, obviously discussing his coming drives and the state of the party money chest.

His just-completed swing was aimed, in the President's words, at stripping some of the glitter and glamor from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Stevenson's Republican opponent.

Truman's new Northeastern trip is expected to be aimed at more of the same. There will be up to 12 speeches a day in New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island—mostly in industrial areas.

Gains claimed for union labor and workingmen in general, and for small businessmen under Democratic administrations are expected to figure heavily on his new drive. Civil rights issues also may draw special attention.

New York with its big 45 electoral votes, Massachusetts with 16 and Connecticut with eight are generally regarded as politically pivotal states which could go either way. New Hampshire is traditionally Republican and Rhode Island has leaned toward the Democrats. They have four votes each.

After leaving Washington at 10 p.m. tonight, Truman will step down from his traditional campaign spot—the rear platform of his train—for a motorcade tomorrow morning from New Haven, Conn., to Hartford and a major speech there at 12:30 p.m. Tomorrow afternoon he will return to his familiar whistle-stop rostrum for seven Connecticut and Massachusetts towns en route to Manchester, N. H., for a night speech.

After returning to Washington Sunday, he is expected to leave within a few days for a three-day campaign swing through Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

Again with only a brief stopover at the White House, he plans to set out on his final drive through Ohio and the Midwest. The White House said his schedule is not complete but tentative plans indicate he may speak in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and possibly Michigan, Minnesota and other states.

The climax will come Saturday night, Nov. 1, in St. Louis—the same site where Truman topped off his successful 1948 campaign.

AFL Bus Drivers Strike In Canton

CANTON, O. (AP)—AFL bus drivers struck today against Canton City Lines, Inc. and set up pickets at garages where the firm's 60 buses were placed after night runs.

Most of the 130 drivers and 30 mechanics attended a two-hour-long union meeting which ended about 3:30 a. m.—two hours before the first morning buses were scheduled to roll.

At the meeting they rejected unanimously by standing vote a company offer of five-cent hourly pay raises and a contributory pension plan. The union wants a package boost of 20 cents hourly on pay now averaging $1.54½ an hour.

City Lines' gasoline and diesel buses operate only within the city limits and carry about 38,000 fares a day in this steel-making community of 120,000.

Pleads For Probation In Car Theft Case

LISBON—Edward Walls, 21, of Carnegie, Pa., changed an earlier plea of not guilty to one of guilty of auto theft at a hearing Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. He requested probation.

Walls, along with a companion, Wayne Green of Spring Grove, Pa., were indicted by the grand jury for stealing a car in East Liverpool last July.

Green has entered a plea of not guilty.

WHERE RUSSIANS ATTACKED WESTERN PLANES—Newsmap above shows where Russian military aircraft have shot down, fired upon or forced down planes of the United States, France and Sweden. The Reds, in each case, have claimed that the planes all violated Soviet frontiers. Most of the charges have been denied by the nations accused of the aerial trespassing. The latest incident involving planes believed to be Russian occurred on Oct. 8, 1952, when an American B-29 crashed in the sea off Northern Japan. Radar screens showed an unidentified, non-allied plane speeding toward the bomber from the direction of the Soviet-held Kurile Islands. The radar images of the two planes "merged" just before the B-29 crashed.

Only 20 Found To Be Positive In TB Testing

Dr. Robert Dunlap, Columbiana County health commissioner, announced 20 positives were found in the tuberculosis patch testing of 2,263 kindergarten and first grade youngsters conducted for the past several weeks throughout the county.

Of the 20, eight were found at East Liverpool in testing 611 children and one in Salem out of 379 youngsters. Only one positive reaction out of 207 was found in Wellsville.

All 20, along with their parents will receive X-ray examinations at the County Health Department at the Lisbon Courthouse.

Dr. Dunlap reminded parents that a positive reaction does not necessarily mean that the child is badly infected with tuberculosis, or that the disease is even contagious.

He added the main purpose of the program is one of education and preventative measures.

Dems Seek $250,000 From Ohioans

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—State Democratic headquarters hopes to get $250,000 in "grass roots" contributions before the Nov. 4 election to help finance its political campaign.

Spokesmen said today the last of $5 contribution certificates will go out this week to party workers in Ohio's more than 10,000 precincts. Each book contains five certificates to be given supporters who contribute $5 each. Multiply the $25 books by 10,000 and that's $250,000.

The $5 contribution campaign is the brain child of the Democratic National Finance Committee to raise campaign funds from the people rather than from big donors. The campaign is nation-wide.

Returns from the campaign will be split between the national and state committees. Sixty per cent will go to the national committee for the presidential campaign of Adlai E. Stevenson and his running-mate, John J. Sparkman.

The other 40 per cent will be split 50-50 between the state committee for the Stevenson-Sparkman drive in Ohio and the county campaigns for the presidential ticket. Counties will share in the fund in proportion to their contributions.

Bristolville Girl Killed In Collision

WARREN, O. (AP)—Forty-five minutes after he was charged with reckless driving, Dean Averick, 44, of Andover, was involved in an automobile accident that killed a three-year-old girl, the State Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said less than an hour earlier, Averick had been fined $50 and costs and had his driver's license suspended for a year after a minor collision.

Taft Says Issue Is Freedom Or Socialism

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio told a cheering crowd last night that the nation decides in just three weeks whether it wants socialism or a free American way of life.

Earlier in the day he told an Albuquerque audience all the present troubles of the United States are traceable to "mistakes in foreign policy," and he blasted corruption in government.

He also told newsmen in a conference at Albuquerque that he believed the best chances for Republican inroads in the Solid South are in Virginia, Florida, Tennessee, Texas and Louisiana.

He spent the night in Santa Fe and was to move on today to Salt Lake City and Logan, Utah.

Before an overflow crowd of 2,000 in a Santa Fe high school auditorium, he declared the campaign issue this fall is this:

"It is the resumption and continuation of progress under a free American way of life, as opposed to the alleged advances to be obtained by surrendering our money and our freedom to the tender mercies of an all-powerful and arbitrary government.

"Basically, the issue is one of liberty against socialism, and we must decide it in 1952."

sample of something to be tested for water content. It might be a sample of human tissue, some bacterial cells, a sample of air or some kind of inorganic chemical.

Knowing that the things to be tested contain virtually no "heavy" hydrogen, the scientists figure that any change between the ratio of "heavy" and light-weight hydrogen in the final mixture will be due entirely to the water content of the sample under test.

They analyze for such a change by converting the water in the whole mixture into water vapor, exposing the vapor to light and then studying it with an instrument called a "spectroscope."

The technique is based upon the fact that water can exist in two forms—the ordinary kind that comes out of your kitchen faucet and a "heavy" kind which is just the same chemically as ordinary water, but actually weighs more. This is because "heavy" water—while containing the same proportions of hydrogen and oxygen as regular water—has a "heavier" form of hydrogen.

The scientists take a mixture of both these kinds of water. They know at the start the ratio of "heavy" hydrogen to light-weight hydrogen in it.

Then, they add to this mixture a

When's the best time to plug a leak?

Anybody can answer that one: as soon as you notice it. For drops lead to trickles, trickles to torrents—and you've got a whole roof to replace instead of a patch.

It's the same way with socialism, which has grown to such a real threat to our way of life. It's crept into the electric light and power business, for example. The first "drops" were "special cases where the planners decided the federal government ought to take over." But that leak has grown and grown.

The whole electric business is threatened by the people who are trying to drive America into socialism. And the first drops are appearing in other industries and services, too.

When socialism spreads, it isn't a roof you lose—it's your rights and freedoms. And they're much harder to replace than shingles.

"MEET CORLISS ARCHER" will be heard on a new night—FRIDAY—at a new time—9:30 P.M., Eastern Time—over ABC. First broadcast on October 2.

Black Dragon Society Returns In Japan To Fight Communism

By RICHARD RUGHES

TOKYO—Japan's Black Dragon Society—the prewar secret movement which terrorized thousands in this country—is coming into its own again, in all its ugly moods. The Black Dragon Society was so notoriously "black" that it was banned "for ever" by the Occupation.

Banned "for ever"—and already 2,000 young Japanese have been enrolled (under the new title of the "National Martyrs Youth Corps") in a nucleus which promises a life as black as anything the feared Dragon Society ever produced. Little wonder when one discovers that the new corps has been organized by former adherents of the old society.

The new corps is—ostensibly—dedicated to "the task of crushing Communists and fifth columnists." Its "martyrs" wear blue shirts, blue trousers, rubber-soled shoes, carry baseball bats as weapons and already have been "blooded" in a skirmish where a score of "martyrs" beat up and threw into the street a group of leftists, conducting inside the foreign office one of the curious Japanese "squat-down" protests against the government's unwillingness to grant passport visas to Japanese delegates to the Communist peace conference in Peking.

After the brawl, the martyrs presented an ultimatum to the foreign vice-minister, ordering him not to grant passport clearances for the leftists, who, in their turn, descended next day on the unhappy official, roughed him up, slapped his face, accused him of conspiracy with the martyrs and demanded a public apology and payment of half a million yen in compensation for the martyr's assault! (With true Japanese logic, the leftists saw no resemblance between their assault on the vice-minister and the martyrs' assault on them.)

Japanese police officials were openly apprehensive this week of further and graver clashes between the martyrs and leftist sympathizers.

"Old Japan Hands" also were concerned at the probability of this offshoot of the old Black Dragon Society developing some of the vigorous characteristics of its distinguished ancestor. In that event, it could be taken for granted that Red heads would not be the only heads to be broken, and that strong-arm hoodlums would not be the only patriots eligible for membership.

The Martyrs Corps, Japanese police reported, was organized by Hidezo Toyama, son of the late Mitsuru Toyama, who built up the original Black Dragon Society to promote Japanese expansion in Asia and elsewhere. Toyama junior was killed in a recent grade-crossing accident, and control and direction of the martyrs officially passed to Masao Morita, a brother of Toyama junior's widow.

The police do not believe that Morita is the real head of the organization, but point out that his nominal authority retains an indirect blood link with the old Toyama, who was one of the most powerful extremists behind Japan's drive for power in Manchuria and China in the 'thirties.

I had a brief interview in 1940 with Toyama, who undoubtedly would have been tried as a major war criminal had he not died before Japan's surrender.

Then in his 80's, Toyama was a picturesque and venerable figure with a white forked beard, squatting in a kimono on a bearskin in his Spartan home.

His diet at that season—autumn—was reputedly restricted to grass and leaves, but he appeared hale and hearty and offered me excellent sake (rice wine) while he denounced British imperialism and Australian opposition to Japanese migration, and warned the West not to interfere with Japan's "sacred mission of pacification in China and the whole of Asia."

Members of Toyama's Black Dragon Society at that time included army officers, cabinet ministers, secret agents and murderers. The influence of the society, which was the most militant of the prewar secret societies in Japan, extended to the highest circles in imperial politics, the army and the navy.

Koki Hirota, former prime minister, who once announced that Chiang Kai-shek would be beheaded when Japan conquered China, Gen. Kenji Doihara, who controlled Japan's military secret service in North China, and Gen. Hideki Tojo himself, were all members of the Black Dragon Society and intimates of Mitsuru Toyama. They were all hanged as major war criminals.

The next decisive step in the successful evolution of the martyrs corps will be the support which it attracts from influential personalities interested in higher responsibilities than the humble, but necessary, role of baseball-bat bashing.

Golden Age

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Growing Children Need Good Lunch

Few things play a more important part in the health of growing children than what they eat. They must have enough calcium for their bones and teeth, enough iron for their blood. Many schools have cafeterias where the youngsters choose their own food. Some children do poorly at this, and should be carefully instructed by the mother as to what they should have each day, and how much to pay for it. A bottle of pop and a piece of pie a la mode is hardly a balanced meal.

It is at school age that youngsters first begin to get away from the dietary control of their homes, and yet as much attention should be given to food at this time as at any other.

Breakfast and supper are usually still taken at home, but lunch is often another matter, and yet this is just as important as the other meals.

Many schools have cafeterias where the youngsters choose their own food. Some children do poorly at this, and should be carefully instructed by the mother as to what they should have each day, and how much to pay for it. A bottle of pop and a piece of pie a la mode is hardly a balanced meal.

Of course, the lunch should be considered in relation to what foods are given at other meals. If, for example, milk is not taken at breakfast and supper, then it should certainly be obtained at noon. In addition to milk, lunch should include some protein food such as meat, eggs, cheese or fish, some bread and butter or potato, and some green vegetable or fruit.

Often parents prefer to give the youngster his own lunch to take from home. If milk can be obtained at school in addition, well and good. If not, a thermos bottle of milk can be included.

The same principles apply to the home-prepared lunch as to those just mentioned. Sandwiches, buttered and filled with meat, eggs, tomato, lettuce and the like, changed from day to day, are usually satisfactory and attractive to most youngsters.

An apple, orange, peach or some similar fruit will supply another important need. If the child has a sweet tooth, a piece of chocolate can be included for dessert.

The youngster should actually eat the lunch which is supplied. Some children, unless watched, will trade off their fruit for a piece of pie or pop, and thus not get the balanced meal which they are supposed to eat. A little tactical questioning and checking-up every few days is in order.

The importance of a good diet for growing children cannot be stressed too much. But at the same time parents should not bound their children about food every day.

If the diet week by week is satisfactory, and if the child is growing normally and getting neither too fat nor too thin, the chances are that he (or she) is eating all right.

1957 Is a Long Time

In presidential politics, as in marriage, the honeymoon is only the beginning.

A voter needs to think of the future. He needs to think of 1957 and the years until then.

He needs to give his attention to the wearing qualities of the political association he is about to make.

It is not going to be merely an association with a personality in politics. The voter must be aware he is going to have to deal with all the circumstances which surround the personality. Americans elect a party, not an individual.

That becomes the strongest possible reason for electing Dwight Eisenhower.

The political circumstances which would surround him in the White House are vastly preferable to those which would surround Gov. Stevenson.

Gov. Stevenson would be the automatic victim of the bitter struggle which broke into the open last summer during the Democratic convention.

He would inherit the irreconcilability of the South which paralyzed Harry Truman's administration and gave control of Congress to a coalition of southern Democrats and northern Republicans.

He would inherit the loss of public confidence which President Truman incurred by failure to use his executive authority to clean out Communist conspirators and tax thieves. He would inherit the problem of how to keep the CIO, AFL and other labor bosses, including John L. Lewis from ruining the Democratic party if they are denied the privilege of ruling it.

He would inherit the tie-up with the racketeers, the Pendergast tradition and his own comfortable alliance with the Arvey type of politician.

He would bring with him the eager beavers of Americans for Democratic Action, that strange collection of two-headed political mavericks who despise the Democratic party yet have been handpicked by the party's presidential candidate to run his campaign.

If you believe this hodge-podge of quarreling elements would give the country what it needs until another president can be inaugurated in 1957, Stevenson should be your choice.

Eisenhower's party background is not all sweetness and light. But even though the Democrats have tried they have been unable to find anything half so touchy among Republicans as the hard feeling between southern states' righters and northern creeping socialists in the Democratic party; or the issue between Jeffersonian Democrats and the union pressure groups; or the quarrel between old-liners like Bernard Baruch and opportunists like Harry Vaughan.

Eisenhower would be a strong president at the head of a strong and unified party. He would be able to administer a clear-minded and positive program of action, barring the possibility that he might be handicapped by an obstructionist bloc in Congress.

From the standpoint of government, there is no comparison in the prospects of Republican and Democratic victory next month. If the haphazard, quarreling and opportunistic coalition which is called the Democratic party for lack of a more descriptive name had been able to administer good government, it would have shown some aptitude in that direction long before now.

Hope Springs Eternal

The diplomatic trick of the year would be a United Nations settlement of the Korean armistice issue. If the U.N. General Assembly sessions starting this week could do what military negotiators in Korea have been unable to do, the principle of collective security under international law finally would have been confirmed.

Failure, on the other hand, would confirm only the fact that collective security has been attacked savagely and successfully by the Communist conspiracy.

Failure is a near-certainty.

It is unlikely that diplomats in New York can do what militarists in Korea have failed to do since midsummer of 1951. They will bog down on the prisoner-of-war issue, not because that issue is insoluble but because it has been chosen by the North Koreans and Chinese as the sticking point in the negotiations.

That is to say, the Communist conspiracy has shown no desire to end the war in Korea. The conspiracy has everything to gain and nothing to lose by continuing the Korean war indefinitely. It is a proving and training ground for Communist China and the Soviet Union. The only thing which might make it too costly to maintain would be a step-up in the United Nations strength and the beginning of an all-out offensive.

But that, ironically, is the decision the United Nations is least likely to make. It seeks collective security, but it has no collective force other than the international army assembled in Korea, composed chiefly of Americans and South Koreans with token forces from 15 other countries.

Hope springs eternal, but military power stops aggressors.

Swing Voters

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Ike More Acceptable To Independents

Certainly there's a swing to Stevenson in these closing weeks of the campaign, and there's undoubtedly a swing "to Eisenhower, too, going on simultaneously."

These two kinds of movements always develop toward the end of a presidential campaign, and it usually means that people who have always been Democrats but have not said much about it before October and persons who have always been Republicans and haven't said much about their preferences suddenly decide that they like the party they always voted for.

The so-called "independent" vote in America is something else—it's the voters who are really shifting from one party to the other. Judging by the list of names the Stevenson managers gave out as "swinging" toward the Democratic nominee, it is probable that a majority voted Democratic in the last 20 years anyhow. It would be interesting to know their previous affiliations, especially in 1944 and 1948.

There has, of course, been a swing of so-called "intellectuals" to Stevenson. That's natural. For many of the "intellectuals" are super-sensitive on the McCarthy issue and not a few of them have been sympathetic with the opposition side. In that respect, Gov. Stevenson is a logical beneficiary of their votes.

In his Detroit speech last week the Illinois governor gave substantial evidence as to why he is attracting the so-called "intellectuals." After describing the 1932 depression—which he attributed not to world-wide causes, as disinterested testimony has since proved, but to the Republican administration in Washington—he said:

"It is little wonder that across the land men and women—and especially the young—began to drift toward the terrible conclusion that free government had reached the end of its rope."

"Reaching out for a solution—any solution—the Communist agents found ready converts among the unemployed, the farmers, the workers. It was then that so many intellectuals, witnessing the devastation of capitalism and the menacing rise of Hitler, became entangled in the Communist conspiracy."

When the governor speaks of "intellectuals" becoming entangled in Communism and gives the reasons, it is an odd coincidence that his researchers gave him almost the very same language as was used by Lee Pressman, general counsel of the CIO and a confessed Communist, in his testimony before the House un-American Activities Committee on August 28, 1950, when he said:

"In the early 1930's, Mr. Chairman, as you may well recall, as well as other members of this committee, there was a very severe depression in our country. The future looked black for my generation just emerging from school. At the same time, the growing specter of Nazism in Germany presented to my mind an equally grave threat. In my desire to see the destruction of Hitlerism and an improvement in economic conditions here at home, I joined the Communist group in Washington about 1934."

It was testified by two witnesses before congressional committees that Alger Hiss was a member of this same group.

Mr. Pressman says he left the "group" a year later and "discontinued any further participation in the group from that date till the present." But on further questioning, he conceded that it did not mean he had severed all connections with the Communist party. His testimony continued:

"Mr. Pressman: Over the past number of years I have had contact and dealings with known leaders of the communist party whom I have met from time to time."

"Mr. Tavenner (counsel): And what was the nature of those contacts which you have mentioned?"

"Mr. Pressman: They would discuss with me their viewpoints, their recommendations, and suggestions."

Sounds Sort of Ho'llo, Doesn't It?

The Commander In Chief

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

I fear that I, like so many other Americans, have accepted the term "commander in chief" too loosely as applied to the President of the United States. This question is currently pertinent, since Harry Truman has taken to the hustings to assault all and sundry with such violence that one wonders whether he thinks that he is running against Taft, Eisenhower or Stevenson.

George E. Sokolsky

His attacks on General Eisenhower imply an expertise on the part of Captain Harry Truman, Commander in Chief. Harry Truman cannot contend that Eisenhower does not know his business because he appointed Ike to be Chief of Staff, which justifies the assumption that, in Truman's opinion, the General was the most suitable man in this country for the post. Or, does Truman wish us to believe that he picks public officials without regard to their suitability? As the power of appointment is the President's, the responsibility for the appointee's fitness is the President's.

ON THE SUBJECT of commander in chief, the Constitution in Article II, Section 2, provides: "The President shall be commander in chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states when called into the actual service of the United States."

Generally, presidents have recognized all the limitations in this clause. The post of commander in chief affects only those actually engaged in military service. The commander in chief is not a military dictator with unlimited powers over the whole population.

As far back as 1850, the Supreme Court held that "As commander in chief he is authorized to direct the movements of the land and naval forces placed by law at his command, and to employ them in the manner he may deem most effectual to harass and conquer and subdue the enemy. He may invade the hostile country and subject it to the sovereignty and authority of the United States."

Therefore, the responsibility for anything that was done by General Eisenhower of General George Marshall or General Lucius Clay or General Douglas MacArthur or any other general or admiral is Harry Truman's while he served as president. If, instead of dismissing men for their errors, he promotes them, then we must assume that he approved of what he now chooses to regard as errors.

It is too late in 1952 for the President to criticize a subordinate as Eisenhower then was for his conduct in 1945.

HARRY TRUMAN'S difficulty is that while he says he likes Ike, he wants to give the public the impression that Eisenhower was a less competent general than we believe him to be because he does not understand politics. But the time for Truman to have told us that was when Eisenhower made his errors, and not seven years later, particularly as during those seven years Truman appointed Eisenhower to higher positions.

The citizens have the right to assume that Truman's true opinion of Eisenhower was expressed when he appointed Ike to be Chief of Staff, Supreme Commander in Europe, and the head of NATO. What he says now is belied by these acts. What he did then was in the exercise of constitutional powers and within his responsibility as commander in chief. What he says now is small-time politics.

EISENHOWER'S defense need at best be that he employed his competence and skill according to his ability and judgment; that he was the commander of an army that won a war; that he was praised and rewarded by his commander in chief, Harry Truman. At that point he need say nothing more.

However, if Truman insists that Eisenhower did badly at Berlin or Prague or anywhere else, we must ask why he did not say so at the time. Why did he not court-martial General Eisenhower at the time? The Supreme Court has held that the president has the power to convene a court-martial. If Eisenhower was wrong at Berlin and brought on a disaster, why did Truman do nothing about it?

The point of this argument is that the more Truman talks about Eisenhower, the more he brings criticism upon himself. If the period from 1945 (Potsdam) to 1951 (the dismissal of MacArthur) is studied, it will be found that our President, Harry Truman, acting within his constitutional responsibilities, erred too often for the good of the country.

Never Turn An Old Leaf

By TRUMAN TWILL

The leaves are falling all around. The are fluttering to soft winter beds in the depths of the forests. They are swirling to sidewalks and pavements in town. They are piling up in fence corners and sinking into creeks and ponds.

But let's not get silly about it.

It's all very poetic and beautiful and nostalgic, this falling of the leaves. It makes everybody think of other autumns and other leaves—like the leaves of a book of memory. But it is an occasion for a seasonal climax of human folly.

Fallen leaves are an irresistible temptation, like window panes in an abandoned factory building. Millions of precious man-hours, child-hours and woman-hours are piddled away each fall in the raking of leaves.

There are some people who live under a compulsion to pick up leaves as they fall, just as there is a compulsion on some people to be insanely neat about their living quarters.

These leaf-pickers begin to scurry about in the early fall and never rest until snow has concealed the presence of the last leaf to fall and lie where they did not want it to be.

Or if they can afford it, they hire someone to pick up leaves for them. The whole insane folly came to an ironic climax during the Great Depression when thousands of unemployed men were handed rakes and ordered to tidy up every nook and cranny in the land. For the first time it was obvious that leaf-raking was a lot of damfoolishness. But it's still going on.

The leaves are falling at our house too. The walnut trees have been bare for days. The sweet and sour cherries are nearly bald. The maples are beginning to let go and patches of brown are beginning to appear in the oaks. Most of the apple leaves are down and the next hard rain will begin to bring down the leaves of the plums.

If we went on to mention peach, ash, wild cherry, horse chestnut, dogwood, elm, pear, etc. it would be plain there is no shortage of leaves at our house. They all come down. They all hit the ground. They are never picked up. But there never are any leaves to pick up. They disappear.

The disappeared when our house was in town, too, though sometimes they had to be nudged along the way with a shoe toe or a stick, due to lack of wind. Nature has a plan for everything else. The wind . . . whosh.

The leaves end up somewhere. But that will not be where you are. Maybe they keep moving until they reach the nearest range of mountains and stop there. Maybe they finally reach the oceans. At our house the leaves are never bothered and they never bother us. They fall to the ground, lie there momentarily and are on their way. Next spring the place is neat as a new supermarket—a labor-saving discovery which can be made by anyone with a lazy streak.

So They Say

I hope that I am terrorizing the communists. I know I am not terrorizing a single good government employee. They are my friends and they know it.—Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

Because we value the welfare of the individual above all else, we have paid the "fines." But we have not paid willingly and we state clearly . . . that our patience is not inexhaustible.—Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

We have taken a rough, militant, demanding attitude. We have been seeking ground bases for airplanes when we should have been looking for bases in the hearts of people.—William Douglas, Supreme Court Justice, on Asia.

It is not common honesty we require in government, but an integrity lifted to the level of sacred honor.—Herbert Hoover.

The time has now arrived when our work of rearming must be prosecuted with a feeling of urgency. We can no longer enjoy the luxury of deliberation.—Adm. William F. Fletcher, Chief of Naval Operations.

Once Over

By R. L. PHILLIPS

He's Up. He's Down

We are a puzzled voter. The issues presented in this slam-bang campaign are such as have never been faced before. Which financial statement should we vote for? . . . What income-tax explanation deserves our all-out support in November? . . . With what audit is the future of America safe? . . . Is it a readpan, nonfading smile most deserving of our ballot?

Once there were simple slogans like "Vote for the Full Dinner Pail," today it is "Vote for Carbon Copies of All Financial Transactions Together with Certified Audits." This is an election campaign by accusation and rebuttal. It should really be reported blow by blow. And by fight experts, not political correspondents. The campaign calls for frequent cries of "He's down! He's up! He's down!" and proper full information on which candidate has just had his mouthpiece knocked out. Indeed it would help matters if the reporters told us which speaker is wearing purple tights, and which the black and white ones.

IT SEEMS TO US that all current campaign speeches should be split up into three-minute periods, with a gong sounded at the end. Certainly there should be a warning that the rabbit and kidney punches are barred and that any foul punch will cost a candidate for the White House the loss of one round.

We have seen more politeness at pier riots. There is now a distinct possibility that the outcome of this election will be highly dependent on public sympathy. We are, on the whole, a kindly people and tend to react warmly to the guy who seems to have taken the most unnecessary roughness. Millions may go to the polls saying, "I never voted Republican before but this is a matter of sympathetic responses," or, "All my life I have been a Republican, but my heart goes out to any Democrat all battered and bleeding that way." Consider the women's vote. . . . the wives and mothers are more sentimental than the menfolks, and, having the instincts of nurses, they may rush to the rescue of whichever aspirant to the White House has taken the most abuse, making a sort of super "Florence Nightingale and Clara Barton to the Relief" production. The election technique calls for litter bearers.

We also wonder just what effect video will have on the result. Television fans, sore at the intrusion of foreign policy and inflation into the sphere of comedy and music, may refuse to vote at all or cast their ballots for the amiable bartender on the beer-sponsored Wednesday night prize fights. Neither Ike nor Adlai has the youthfulness or beauty required on video and are hardly the panel type. To go over big on television you must have a little of Godfrey, Garraway, Berle, and Betty Furness in you. (It's one eluava baffling campaign. May the most abused man win!)

HERE IS ELECTION DAY only a few weeks off and Harry Truman hasn't yet accused Gen. Dwight Eisenhower of being absent without leave during the European war! . . . U.N. has called off true talk in Korea but Dean Acheson says it is not a permanent suspension but merely a recess. . . . Maybe Mr. Acheson's Panmunjom slogan is, "Wait 'til next year!"

. . . In the distribution of accolades to the Yankee organization, following the series triumph last week, a fellow who had a lot to do with it, George Weiss, deserved more than he got. . . . Weiss has devoted his life to baseball, starting on the sandlots in Hamden, a suburb of New Haven, forming a semi-pro team, organizing a Connecticut League pro team in that city and doing so well with it that it resulted in his signing with the Yanks to run the farm system a quarter of a century ago. And George developed most of the top Yankee stars. . . . A Washington commission reports that Americans spend as much for smokes and drink as for health and medical care. . . . Possibly it's because health isn't plugged so much on airwave commercials. . . . Russia announces it can lick anybody in the house and shoots at an unarmed hospital plane to prove it. . . . John Roosevelt, youngest son of Franklin D., is to stump for Eisenhower. . . . Now we have seen everything!

Looking Backward

From The News Files

FORTY YEARS AGO—Col. Theodore Roosevelt was shot and wounded as he was leaving a Milwaukee hotel to make a speech. His would-be assassin was captured and confessed, saying "Any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

Leaving Monday for the Friends Boarding School at Barnesville were Mary Moore, Alice Blackburn, Edith Satterthwaite, Emma Hodgins, Alice Rogers, Walter Rogers and Mary Conrad.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—Prizes in the bridge games were won by Mrs. C. M. Carey, Mrs. Richard Mason and Mrs. A. M. Wilhelm when Mrs. J. A. Pidgeon entertained at her home, McKinley Ave.

W. H. Read of Franklin Ave. has returned from the annual convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers at El Paso, Texas.

TEN YEARS AGO—Wendell L. Willkie stepped out of the role of personal representative of the President and back in to that of private citizen after ending an epochal circuit of the world and appealing anew for a second front.

Lunch was served by Mrs. John Vincent and Miss Lillie Curtis when the Harriet Watt Guild of the Episcopal Church held a meeting Wednesday.

FIVE YEARS AGO—Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, saying he does "not believe the Red army would try to hold permanently to all of eastern German," declared, however, that the United States must be prepared to "take measures of last resort" to restore peace to Europe.

Prizes in the card games were won by Miss Ruth Prior and Miss Anne Moore when Cameo Club associates met at the home of Miss Alice Stallsmith, Perry St.

Adios!

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—Dear Hal: I hope you have a nice vacation. Really I do.

What I mean is, there's no need to feel bad leaving me to do your column while you fish in Spain or take the sun in Capri. No need at all.

Oh I've had a little trouble getting off the ground, but don't worry. Looking over the files, I noticed that in just the last few months you've written about balding women, balding men, furbearing cows, losing weight, stealing the Queen Mary, office collections, how to spoil a wife, in defense of the common cold, how to make a million dollars, about politics, life, death, war, peace, love and hate.

That, of course, leaves me plenty of room. You've scarcely touched advanced calculus, the dialectic overtones of nihilism or the best way to install a remote-control wiring system.

Looking for ideas, I've roamed through the whole office, but it seems, you beat me to it. Every brain around here has been picked clean, the folks here now act like people in a small town after a carnival has passed through. They just ain't talking to any more strangers.

For the last 36 hours, I've followed my kids around with pencil and paper but they haven't said anything particularly funny or poignant. True, Kathy, the 6-year-old, keeps yelling she wants a loose tooth, but how much can you do with that? Besides, what ever clever things the kids have done in the past, you've already written about. (Remind me to keep you away from my children.)

My wife hasn't been much help either. It must be at least two weeks since she picked on me. Ordinarily, I would count myself lucky but, now this leaves me with no ammunition to renew the battle of the sexes.

Talking to a man up at the zoo, I thought I had an idea. But even that subject is tied up. Someone else is doing "How to Live with a Skunk."

And where have all the press agents gone to? The best they have come up with so far is a tip on a dog trainer who is taking public speaking courses at New York University. I called the guy and asked him why and he said to get more authority in his voice. That about covered that.

I talked to another fellow who said he had just come across country from California by motorcycle and had some fresh ideas on the international situation. Fine, I said and took out my pencil. But then he suggested I submit my questions in writing and he would answer them in writing.

Not much point, I said, and besides, wouldn't we look silly passing notes back and forth like a couple of spies? He shrugged and said: Well, it was just a suggestion.

Now about your trip, I said, and he said, just a moment. You understand, he said, I'll have to charge you for the interview. period, thirty, end story.

But don't worry, Hal, something will turn up. Meanwhile, I hope you have a grand time. Really I do.

It takes 13 bushels of corn and 40 pounds of supplement a year to keep a sow.

Nine Brownies, Seven Fly-Ups Feted At Tea

Mothers of Scouts of Buckeye Brownie Troop 26, Buckeye School Principal Mrs. George Peterson, and sponsor representative, Mrs. Clyde McFeely, were guests at a tea at Buckeye School, Monday, honoring nine new Brownie Troop members and seven fly-ups.

Fly-ups, Karen Smith, Sallie Snyder, Veberry Erath and Jacquie Hippiely presented colors, followed by troop pledge of allegiance to the flag. Nine second grade girls, Penny Pidgeon, Patty Jo Eddy, Shirley Pilch, Carolyn Keller, Lois Ulrich, Delira Coy, Peggy Sue Swartz, Nelda Stanley and Georgia Ann Schneider, repeated the Brownie promise and were presented Brownie pins by their leaders, Mrs. Clarence Pemberton and Mrs. John Ulrich.

Mrs. Pemberton explained to the girls that the next three years would be spent in cooperative play and work and preparation for the intermediate program. Leader, Mrs. Carl Smith, explained the meaning of the three-part Girl Scout promise as fly-ups Judy Schneider, Mickey Cope and Sandy Sneddon lit three large candles.

The fly-ups repeated the Girl Scout promise and laws and were given their wings. Mrs. Ulrich presented a troop gift of money to the fly-ups to be used for the purchase of troop numerals and crests for the girl scout uniforms. Mrs. Smith presented the fly-ups gold stars to replace their Brownie year pins.

Troop committee chairman, Mrs. George Snyder, assisted by troop mothers, was in charge of the refreshments. Flower arrangements in brown and yellow, the brownie colors, were made by Mrs. Robert Coy. Brownies meet Monday in Buckeye School and the fly-ups will meet Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church as a part of troop 31.

FOR THE WOMAN WHO WEARS HALF-SIZES, fashion is just so much twaddle unless she can find clothes that really fit. Not only should they fit, they should do things for her: make her eyes sparkle, her skin glow, her figure look young and firm.

Half-size dresses too often look as if they'd been planned for a figure not only mature but dumpy.

Each season, however, the half-size dress, suit and coat make new gains. As an example, we dollar, no woman relishes paying out money for alterations. She feels she has the right to clothes that fit at the outset. And it still isn't easy for her to find what she wants—handsome clothes that are right for her figure.

Monthly Meeting Held By Deanery

The monthly meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women of East Liverpool Deanery was held Saturday at St. John's hall, Summitville.

Mrs. Freeman Strabley, president, was in charge of the meeting when a report on publicity and public relations was given by Mrs. Hugh McTeague of East Liverpool.

Discussion was held on action taken in Congress under the direction of Congressman E. C. Gathings, head of the investigation on indecent literature and publications. It was suggested that the congressman be encouraged in his work in keeping such literature from young people.

A report was given from the Catholic Charities Workshop by Mrs. Mary Bryan of Salem, vice president of the N.C.C.W. The workshop stresses the spiritual works of charity and in this connection, plans were made to send remembrances to the county home and to the immigrants of Ellis Isle who will be detained there over Christmas.

Miss Katherine Gibson, who took charge of the project last year, expressed the appreciation of the people who benefited.

The N.C.C.W. asked that members set aside Oct. 24, United Nations Day, to pray for the success of the U.N.

Mrs. Bernard Rodgers, diocesan president, gave a report on the recent activities of the national convention in Seattle, Wash. Msgr. Francis J. Lavery, moderator, urged members to vote in the November election.

Mrs. Earlin Yeager of Salem gave a report on the organization and development of the N.C.C.W. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. Fr. Edward Dierker of Summitville.

The next meeting will be at Dungannon Nov. 8.

Tickets may be obtained at the door.

McKinley Students To Aid Swim Pool

The fifth and sixth grade students of McKinley School have been working diligently on posters advertising the indoor festival planned for Oct. 22 by the McKinley School Parent-Teachers Association.

The posters are being distributed throughout the neighborhood and in the downtown area. The children are bringing "white elephants" knickknacks that are no longer needed at home to be used in the fish pond.

Mrs. Fred Sweitzer is general chairman for the event, which will be held in the Memorial Building. Mrs. H. D. Harris and Mrs. Donald Lease are co-chairmen. Room mothers and teachers are assisting with program arrangements.

Doors will be open at 7:30 p.m. There will be round, square and polka dancing from 8 to 11 p.m., with music furnished by Koran's Melody Makers.

Besides the fish pond and dancing, there will be games and a stand of baked goods furnished by the parents. Proceeds will go into the Swimming Pool Fund.

The Gold team, which lost the membership contest, served lunch. Mrs. Charles Dimko, captain of the team, was assisted by Mrs. Steve Dimko, Miss Jayne Royle, Miss Jessie DeLand and Mrs. Clara Rhodes.

Four new members initiated and welcomed to the auxiliary are Mrs. Thelma Talbot, Evangeline Gallagher and Evelyn Brubocher and Valois Mullett.

A letter was read by the secretary, Mrs. Eleanor Beeson, from Viva Seely of Roscoe, O., president of the Sixth District, concerning the conference meeting which will be held in East Palestine Sunday, Oct. 26. Mrs. Seely, chairman of the conference, invited officers and members of the Salem auxiliary to attend the event.

School Levy
Renewal UrgedStudents Purchase
Two Water Coolers

COLUMBIANA — Disastrous results to the Columbiana schools that would follow defeat of the renewal of the special five-mill tax levy for the schools were emphasized at a meeting in the High School auditorium, Monday evening, of the Community Council, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and composed of civic groups.

In the absence of Superintendent D. W. Bailey, who was detained in a meeting of the board of education, Elmer Detwiler Jr., a member of the board, spoke for the school administration.

Of special importance for consideration by voters is the fact that the state foundation now provides about 50 per cent of the operating expenses of the schools, and defeat of the levy would make Columbiana ineligible to participate in its benefits and force a drastic curtailment of facilities and a shortening of the school year. Having been in force a number of years, renewal of the levy would not represent an increase in taxes. Its revenue goes into the fund for operating expenses, coal, utilities, salaries, bus transportation, building repairs, equipment repairs, textbooks and furniture.

Attorney William Lodge spoke on the proposal to make changes in the state constitution and described methods by which it could be done.

TWO ELECTRIC water coolers, purchased with funds from the annual magazine campaign, have been presented the High School by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs of Columbiana High School as their project of the year. The board of education accepted the gift at its meeting Monday evening and will provide for installation of the coolers in the High School part of the building.

The clubs sold magazine subscriptions to the amount of $1,129.25, and the profits were devoted to the purchase of the coolers. With sales of $159.80, Patty Stockman was the prize winner.

An elementary school council is being organized, the first of its kind in the elementary grades.

Principal W. G. Gloss will attend the meeting of the State High School Principals' association in Columbus, Friday and Saturday. Superintendent D. W. Bailey and Board Members William Allen, Charles Ramsey and Elmer Detwiler Jr., will attend a meeting of the Northeast Ohio School Board Association in Kent, Saturday, Nov. 1.

Dr. Charles L. Naylor of Ravenna, district governor of Rotary International, paid his official visit to the Columbiana club Monday evening. He was accompanied by his father, J. L. Naylor of Poland.

A CLUB ASSEMBLY of officers and committee chairmen was followed by members, Richard Berryman, new basketball coach of Columbiana High School. The annual Community Chest drive with a goal of $5,600, which opened today, was announced. Rotarian A. L. Wells is chairman.

Visiting Rotarians were Clarence Miller of Youngstown, and Ewing Farrington, J. Ray Stiver and Glenn Broomall, all of Salem.

Earl Corey, program chairman for next Monday evening, has obtained Attorney George Lafferty of Lisbon, Columbiana County chairman for the Ohio sesquicentennial celebration next year, as the speaker.

Reputed superiority of Swedish steel was attributed by John Backstrom of the Enterprise Co., a native of Sweden, in an address before the Kiwanis Club Monday evening, to the fact that the ore in Sweden is dug from solid rock, while in North America it is scooped up loose by power shovel.

Mr. Backstrom had experience in the production of ore in Sweden and Lapland before coming to America in 1922. Since then he has set up machinery in Moscow and Odessa, Russia, and compared production methods there with those in the United States and the high standard of living here. Marion Poulton presented the speaker.

Andrew Schmidt, manager of the Columbiana A. & P. store, was welcomed as a new member of the club. Ladies' night will be observed at Midway Grange Thursday evening, Oct. 23, when the

Red Newspaper Heads
Arrested In France

BORDEAUX, France (AP)—Two directors of the Communist newspaper Les Nouvelles de Bordeaux have been arrested and charged with provoking pillage. The charge was an outgrowth of a Communist sacking of the U. S. Information Service office here last May.

The Reds smashed into USIS headquarters during anti-Ridgway riots, tore up large numbers of American publications and caused heavy damage.

The newspaper published a story calling the raid "a victory for France." The two directors are Henri Bordage and Raoul Martinez.

Halloween Vandals
In Waterford Warned

NEW WATERFORD — Mayor Earl Welch today issued a warning to parents here that they would be held responsible for acts of vandalism caused by their children during Halloween season.

He issued the warning after a number of property damage actions had come to his attention.

Anyone caught defacing private or public property will be prosecuted, he said. Parents will be held responsible for the misdeeds of their children.

Cartilage Packed In Jars Can Be Bought

CHICAGO (AP)—Cartilage packed in glass jars for use in plastic surgery can now be bought by doctors.

The material, used as the base on which to build new chins, noses and ears, is taken from the ends of the breastbones of freshly slaughtered steers. Cleaned and trimmed, it forms a soft, white, rubbery half moon about 4 by 2 inches and up to one half inch in thickness.

The cartilage is being marketed by Armour and Company.

Inside Labor By VICTOR RIESEL

A tiny, tightly knit band of men around Gov. Stevenson has apparently appointed itself the thought-police of his headquarters — and has kept this story from being told to him privately. So, before great danger is done to the Orient, the story must be told.

The story began on the West Coast, when Mr. Stevenson gave some off-the-cuff answers to northwestern newsmen and editors. In one or two swift replies the governor indicated what seemed to be an inclination to recognize Peiping China and write off the Nationalist anti-Communist government — in exile on Formosa.

There was spontaneous reaction inside the highest Democratic party circles.

ONE GROUP of liberals rushed a plea to former Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk, asking him to contact Gov. Stevenson with a request for a statement encouraging our Oriental allies on and off Formosa. Conservative Democrats, who might be best described as the "machine men," tried to reach Stevenson personally.

At the AFL convention, labor leaders and their advisers, who formulate foreign policy and run the powerful AFL global anti-Communist network from here to their new Tokyo office, tried to reach the candidate.

All these groups, fervently in Stevenson's corner and therefore political allies, were disturbed by what they believed to be the influence of the "ivory towered academician from Harvard," Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. Those were the words used. I quote them verbatim.

Mr. Schlesinger, a newcomer to the veteran Democrats, is known to loathe the Chinese Nationalist leaders. His attitude towards Soviet China is similar to that of the British.

THERE WAS no insinuation of sympathy on his part for Mao Tse-tung — just the feeling that author Schlesinger, topside researcher-adviser to Mr. Stevenson, was guessing wrong on China.

Effort to tell Stevenson that the university man was as wrong as the policies which hurt us in the Orient in the past decade, failed. Neither the liberals who wrote to Rusk, the labor leaders now spending millions on the Democratic campaign, nor the "machine men" could get through to the governor.

It was then that these groups, acting independently of each other, began murmuring about self appointed "thought police."

The labor leaders were more alarmed than the others—who do not have the AFL's contacts throughout the Orient. The Communist underground had begun to twist and exploit the Oregon statements of Gov. Stevenson. To understand the full danger of such a propaganda maneuver, the tense, crackling atmosphere in such up-front sectors as Hong Kong must first be known in detail.

THE AREA today is being terrorized by squads of underground Communist agents from Peiping.

Their assignment is to bully the Hong Kong Chinese into supporting the new Soviet dynasty. From one base the scores of millions of overseas Chinese, who dominate many vital Oriental areas, can be terrorized and won without a shot's shattering the steaming eastern day.

Furthermore, this Operation Terror pours millions of dollars into the Peiping war machine. In Hong Kong, for example, the pro-Commie unions publish magazines and charge factory owners as much as $1,000 a page for ads. Each of these editions has raised over $100,000 several times a year. Multitoply these by Singapore, Macao and a hundred Oriental cities. That's big time extortion. It can be accomplished only when unions and business men feel they'd better fall in line, or else, someday . . .

Recently Peiping sent 400 such agents into Hong Kong alone. We know their names. Most important is a small group of women living in apartment No. 1 in a house on Ching Shen road, east of Sun Yen Village in Kowloon (Hong Kong). They're run by the lady known as "Ce."

THE UNDERGROUND labor chief is a man using the name of Chang K. Another is known to intimates as Chan W. He is in charge of exploiting Gov. Stevenson's statements. It is he who turned a secret auto union meeting in Hong Kong into a night of gay toasting, when the left wing Hong Kong Evening Post headlined the Stevenson story: "The U.S. Plan to Abandon the Fight Against Communism and Is Preparing to Compromise with Communist Authorities."

The intelligence report on this session said that, "This meeting, like others held since, has built up the confidence of those who lagged in the left wing, and the underground leftists' activity has been greatly strengthened."

And now anti-Communists in the Orient implore us in "the states" to get a statement from all campaigners saying that no matter who wins the election, our allies there won't be abandoned to terror and political "brain washing."

Churchill Says 3rd World War Unlikely

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill said last night he doesn't think a third world war likely because both sides realize the untold horrors it would unleash. But if war does develop, he added, the main decision would come within the first month.

Churchill told the Anglo-American Pilgrim Society that any new war would begin with horrors "on a scale never dreamed of before" and would be crippling to a power depending on vast land armies. Although he didn't name Russia, his warning obviously was aimed at her.

He said that though "the quarrel might continue for an indefinite period, after the first month it would be a broken-back war in which no great army could be moved over long distances by land."

Important Facts About PACKARD'S PROVED POWER BRAKES

Outstanding Advancement in Car Control Sets New Standard of Motoring Safety!

NOT SINCE 1924—when Packard was first to offer four-wheel brakes as standard equipment—has there been so important a contribution to driving ease, convenience and safety as Packard Power Brakes!

• • Proved faster acting, far easier to apply and completely safe at all times, Packard Power Brakes give you quicker, smoother stops with 40% less foot pressure—as thousands of Packard owners have already learned through hundreds of thousands of motoring miles!

• • You don't even have to take your foot off the floor to use them. You merely pivot your toe from the accelerator to Packard's low-level brake pedal. This alone cuts 29% from the average time it takes to apply brakes! Gentle toe-tip pressure is all that Packard Power Brakes require.

• • First power brakes on any passenger car that you don't have to lift your foot to apply, proved Packard Power Brakes use engine vacuum to produce 40% of the braking effort and to assure a normal "feel" to pedal action. They give you smooth, straight-line stops every time!

• • The only car with these proved power brakes, today's great Packard offers you another braking exclusive in its Safti-Set Parking Brake. This convenient hand brake is either "ON" or "OFF"—it can't be accidentally left half-way on to cause brake lining wear when the car is moving.

• • SEE, COMPARE AND DRIVE A PACKARD before you spend $2500 for a car. Only Packard gives big-car comfort, performance and safety at medium-car cost and economy. And remember—"Built like a Packard" means built to last!

Carter, Salas Mix Tonight For Lightweight Boxing Crown

Pittsburgh, St. Louis Browns Begin Rebuilding Project

New York Negro Favored, 2-1

Chicago Stadium Bout On TV At 10

CHICAGO (AP)—Jimmy Carter, lightning-fisted New York Negro, hopes to repeat the feat of another lightweight of a dozen years ago and recapture the 135-pound crown from Lauro Salas tonight.

Carter will try to emulate Lou Ambers, who lost the title to Henry Armstrong in 1933 and won it back the next year.

No other lightweight has ever done it.

The scrap promises to sizzle from start to finish and run a full 15 rounds.

Only 5,000 or so customers are expected at ringside, which would be the smallest turnout for a title bout ever promoted by the International Boxing Club. The Chicago Stadium attraction will be televised and broadcast nationally starting at 10 p.m., EST.

Each fighter will receive nearly $10,000 as his share of television receipts. This sum should far overshadow their 30-30 split of a gate not expected to exceed $25,000.

A big Latin following will be on hand to cheer the 24-year-old champion. The confident little mauler from Los Angeles via Monterrey is boxing's first bona fide Mexican titleholder.

Neither Fighter KD'd

While compiling a record of 45 victories, 20 losses and six draws, Salas has never been knocked out. Usually a slow starter, he opens up with explosive flurries at the close of each round. He is a hard-shooter, somewhat wild, and has scored 18 knockouts.

Salas finished strongly in defeating Carter for the 135-pound crown five months ago in Los Angeles. He is confident his mauling style will again take care of his 28-year-old rival.

Carter, the more polished, clever fighter, likes to mix it up. This is his third meeting with Salas. The Mexican hero was beaten in their first battle although dropping Carter in the 15th round by catching the little Negro off balance rather than with a staggering blow.

Carter Favored, 2-1

Carter rules a 2-1 favorite. He has kayved 21 foes in winning 35 fights, losing 13 and drawing one. Like Salas, he has never been flattened. He has fought only once since losing his crown while Salas has kept busy scoring four victories, each by a knockout within five rounds.

There is no rematch clause in their contract for tonight's bout. If Salas loses, there are reports he will go after the feather-weight title. He has done most of his campaigning in that division and will weigh in at about 131 pounds, four less than the lightweight limit packed by Carter.

Bucks Prepare For Washington State

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Coach Woody Hayes would rather not talk about the probable outcome of the game between his Ohio State footballers and Washington State here Saturday.

Hayes said he wasn't too impressed by Tuesday's workout, and repeated warnings of over-optimism on the part of his Buckeyes. Hayes and his coaching staff feel a good mental attitude played a big part in Ohio's 23-14 victory over highly-favored Wisconsin last Saturday.

Bob Watkins, second string right halfback, has showed improvement in recent workouts, said Hayes. Watkins recently was replaced as a first team halfback by Howard (Hopalong) Cusack.

The Buck varsity squad tackled Washington State plays in a work-out against freshmen and the junior varsity.

Bucky Harris Inks Contract With Senators

NEW YORK (AP)—Managerial heads rolled at an alarming rate during the 1952 major league baseball season but the survivors are all set for 1953, many with juicy contracts that extend beyond the next campaign.

The signing of Bucky Harris to a two-year contract by the Washington Senators Tuesday just about completed the picture for 1953.

Brooklyn and Pittsburgh are the only big league teams that have not signed pilots for the coming season. In the Dodgers' case, however, it's just a question of time since Chuck Dressen, who led the Brooks to the National League pennant, is a cinch to be back.

The Pirates are seeking a replacement for Bill Meyer, who resigned on the next to the last day of the season. Meyer was the sixth manager to leave his club in 1952 for one reason or another.

Harris' signing came hard on the heels of the inking of a two-year pact by Casey Stengel of the world champion New York Yankees. With bonuses, Old Case could make $100,000 per year.

Bucky settled for considerably less, reportedly $35,000, a 10 grand hike over his salary for the past three years.

Walking Champ Won't Celebrate With Hike

TEANECK, N. J. (AP)—Former National Walking Champion James H. Hocking, 96 years old today but still spry and chipper, won't take the long hike with which he usually ushers in his birthdays.

Hocking had every intention of walking 20 miles through Palisades Interstate Park to mark the occasion today, but his son and the family physician talked him out of it.

He says he walked 2,854 miles during his 95th year and more than 250,000 miles in his lifetime.

The tie enabled the unbeaten Hawks to protect their three point lead over the Red Wings.

Lattner, 50-Minute Man, Is Classed As Notre Dame's Finest Back Since Lujack

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

NEW YORK (NEA)—In the wake that followed Notre Dame's opening game 7-7 tie with Pennsylvania, an angular young halfback sat, head bowed, in the glum dressing room and muttered, "The way I played I shouldn't even have been out there today."

Johnny Lattner needn't have been so self-deprecating.

The 19-year-old kid from Chicago did everything but dry Frank Leahy's handkerchief. He scored the only Irish touchdown, punted, passed, played almost all the way on defense.

Only an off-balance lurch by Penn's Ed Bell jarred his elbow loose from the ball after Lattner spun free with a pass for the possible winning TD late in the going.

It's a tribute to the 190-pound junior that Leahy lets him linger in a game for 50 or more minutes.

He's the finest all-around back at Notre Dame since Johnny Lujack. He was a popular pre-season All-America selection.

LAST YEAR in his first varsity season Lattner topped the Irish in playing time. He had the leading ground-gaining average, five yards, intercepted the most passes, was the second leading scorer.

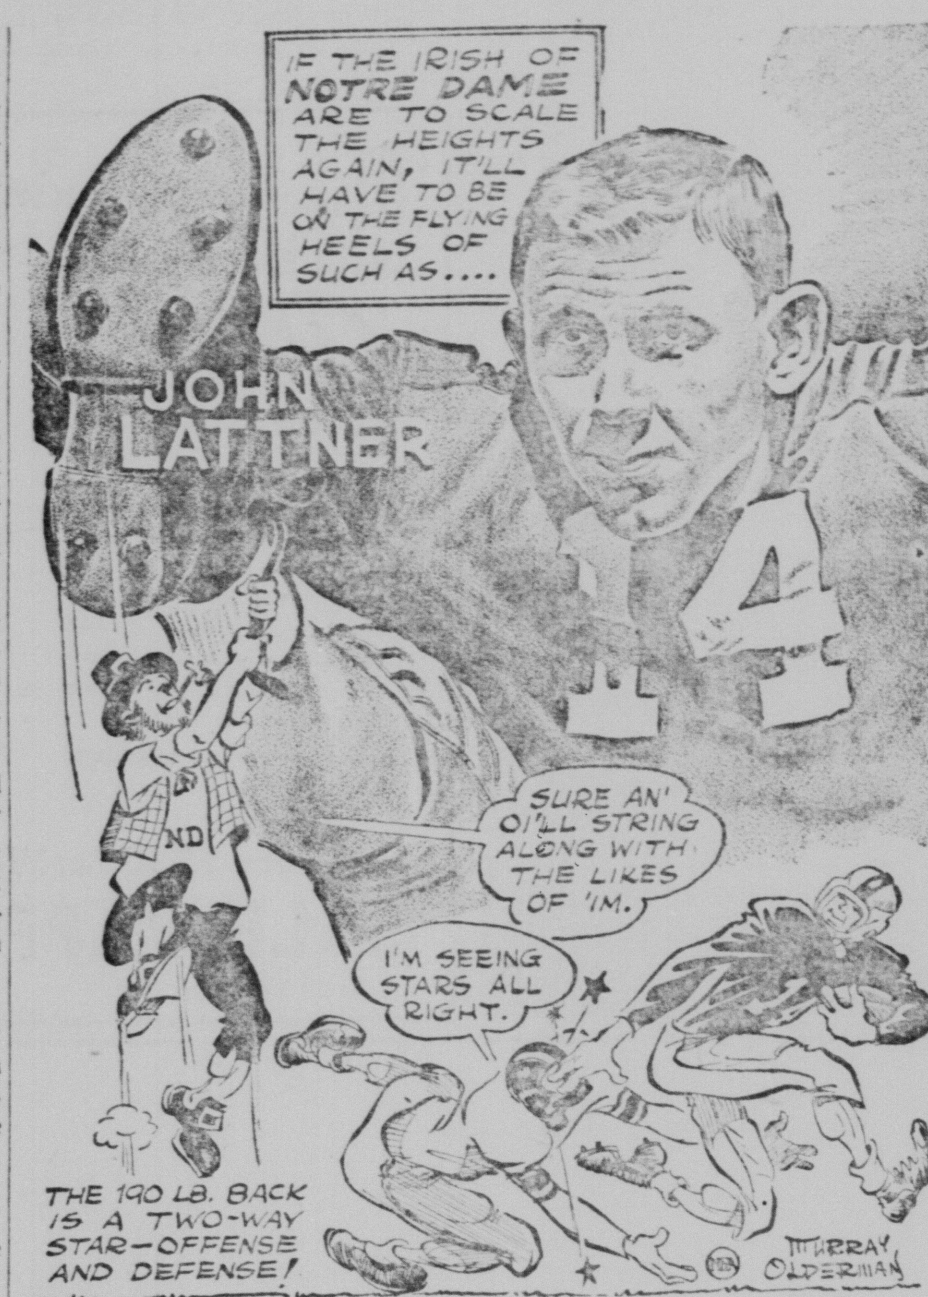

"He does have good endurance," confesses the cautious Leahy. "He is a very strong boy."

Lujack, now his backfield coach, goes a step farther:

"Johnny's the kind of boy who welcomes the chance to play 50 or 60 minutes. He's good now, but he's going to be better."

If there's going to be anything to cheer about for old Notre Dame, it'll be youngsters like Lattner who provide it. His clutch talents were never better evident than during the last basketball season when he scored a last-second field goal to upset New York University in overtime.

At six-feet two he's a replica in structure and disposition of Stanford's Bob Mathias. His Fenwick High School exploits in Chicago rated him All-America mention as a prepster. Tall Johnny started as an end, switched to the backfield.

He's a strong runner with just enough touch of elusiveness to make him a constant all-the-way threat. For a change of pace the Irish have him pass occasionally on the tag end of laterals.

Johnny, who's registered no beefs with the NLRB because of his full-time load in this platoon era, admits a slight preference for offense, which is only natural. Lujack says he's a shade better with a ball clutched to his stomach.

Oct. 24, the eve of the North Carolina game, will be his 20th birthday, prompting Johnny Lattner to recall:

"Last time my birthday fell the night before a game was in high school, and I really had myself a celebration. Scored three touchdowns."

Oliver Leads County Scorers For Fourth Consecutive Week

Eddie Oliver, hard-running fullback of the East Liverpool Pottery, widened his first-place lead in the individual scoring race last week as Columbiana County teams rounded out the first half of the season.

Oliver maintained his lead for the fourth consecutive week, collecting 16 points—2 touchdowns and 4 extra points—to move out in front of the pack with 71 markers.

His teammate, Jerry Wines, an end, led the first week of the 1952 campaign, but Oliver went ahead the second week and hasn't been surpassed since.

Tony Conkle, East Palestine Bulldogs' backfield star who was third straight weeks previously, breezed into the second slot with 52 to his credit, getting 2 TD's last Friday.

Halfback Fred Forney of Columbiana's Clippers vaulted into third back with 48 by virtue of 2 TD's over the weekend. Fourth the week before, Forney replaced Fullback Joe Guido of the Leetonia Bears, who fell from second to fourth after garnering just 2 placements to bring his total to 47.

Halfback Jerry Rose of the Lisbon Blue Devils nailed down No. 5 spot with 36, having tallied a pair of 6-pointers in Lisbon's rout of Sebring. He nosed out the Salem Quakers' Nelson Mellinger, who managed to get only a single TD to boost his points to 31.

The potent Potters, third in the Associated Press state pool, are still on top in county team scoring with 164. Leetonia held onto second with 107, a point ahead of East Palestine. Scoring by the other 4 county teams is as follows: Wellsville 93; Lisbon 84; Columbiana 80; and Salem 77.

Lisbon and the Potters have best defensive records, with only 46 points marked up against them. Leetonia and Wellsville are tied for third with 64. Other teams' defensive records are: East Palestine 66; Columbiana 74; and Salem 133. Oliver increased his extra-point total to 22 on 4 placements last week. Guido kicked 2 placements to remain in second with 11 and Bob Foster of Wellsville is next with 9 after 3 in Friday's contest.

Xavier U. Boasts All-Around Man

Bob Judd Rates As Great Back

By HAROLD HARISON

CINCINNATI (AP)—The day of the football player who can do everything—and do it well—may be almost a thing of the past, but not insofar as Xavier University's Bob Judd is concerned.

Judd, a junior halfback from Peoria, Ill., has been a one-man gang for a Xavier team that, because of lack of experience and manpower, still has yet to win its first game of the season.

He runs, he passes, he kicks, he receives passes, he blocks and he has been a tower of strength on defense.

In fact, Tuesday, when Xavier's Musketeer Club got together for its weekly luncheon, the coaches and kibitzers sounded as if last Saturday's game between Xavier and Cincinnati must have been Judd VS Cincinnati. It was all "Judd did this" and "Judd did that" in the game in which the heavily favored U. C. outfit had to fight all the way for a 20-13 victory.

Coach Ed Kluska calls Judd one of the two greatest backs Xavier has had in the last six years. He listed the other as Bob Finnell from last season's unbeaten Musketeer team.

"He has more great all-round ability than anyone I've seen in a long time," said Kluska of the 177-pound back. "He can punt and run and he can pass if necessary. He's a fine pass receiver and he's a good solid blocker."

As proof of his statements, Kluska whipped out the season's statistics. In four games—two against rugged Marine outfits, one against power-laden Miami and the other against unbeaten Cincinnati—Judd has scored half of Xavier's 48 points.

He has averaged about four yards a try in 89 rushing attempts. He has a 30-yard punting average in 26 kicks. He has caught six passes and he's done the throwing a few times even though Joe Degaro is Xavier's regular passer.

On defense Judd handles the safety position.

Tribe Gets Two Players

CLEVELAND (AP)—Outfielder Mike Lutz and second baseman Stan Pawlowski have been purchased by the Cleveland Indians from the Tribe's farm club at Reading, Pa.

Lutz, 25, of Leavittsburg, O., batted .321 to lead the Class A Eastern League and hit 23 homers. Pawlowski, 21, of Wanamie, Pa., had a .272 average.

Cardinals, Red Sox, Indians Bring Up Minor League Players

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Browns, confronted with a gigantic rebuilding job, are wasting no time in getting their reconstruction program rolling.

Pittsburgh, a sorry last this season, and St. Louis, marooned in seventh place, highlighted a busy major league bartering session yesterday which chiefly involved minor league clubs.

The Pirates pulled off the only "real" trade of the day. The Bucs shipped Gus Bell, 23-year-old longball-hitting outfielder to the Cincinnati Reds for three players.

Bill Vecek, major domo of the Browns, lured shortstop Bill Hunter, hailed as one of the best prospects in the minors, from the Brooklyn Dodger organization in what he called a $150,000 deal. The Browns turned over a bundle of cash and three players.

The St. Louis Cardinals, Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians brought up a number of players from their minor league affiliates in "paper" transactions while the Philadelphia Athletics purchased righthander John Mackinson, a former New York Yankee farmhand, from Birmingham of the Southern Association.

Bell, reportedly in the doghouse with the powers that be at Pittsburgh for lack of hustle, batted only .246 for the Pirates in 131 games.

To get Bell, the Reds shipped catcher Joe Rossi, a .221 hitter, and outfielders Cal Abrams and Gail Henley to the Pirates. Henley was obtained by the Reds Monday from the New York Giants for pitcher Frank Hiller. Abrams, who started the season with Brooklyn, batted .278 while Henley hit .273 for the Reds' Tulsa club of the Texas League.

The Pirates also added two players from the minors and dropped two. Catcher Bill Hall was called up from Pittsburgh's Charleston club of the South Atlantic League and Charley Sipple, once with the Philadelphia Phillies, was procured from Indianapolis of the American Association.

Pittsburgh disposed of two pitchers, dispatching righthander Don Carlsen to Charleston and lefthander Len Yochim to New Orleans of the Southern Association.

Hunter, voted the Texas League's most valuable player, batted .290 for Ft. Worth and led the loop in fielding and stolen bases. He was moved to the Dodgers' St. Paul club after the season to protect him from the draft.

The Browns turned over outfielder Ray Coleman, pitcher Bob Mahoney and Stan Rojek, a former Dodger shortstop prospect, to St. Paul.

The Indians requested waivers on veteran catcher Birdie Tebbets with the intention of giving him a job in the organization.

Giants' Price Leads Ground Gainers In NFL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eddie Price of the New York Giants, the league's top ground gainer in 1951, leads the pack of National Football League leather luggers again this year with an overall mark of 316 yards for three games.

The former Tulane flash has carried the ball 54 times for an average of 5.9 yards. He gained 971 yards to win the title last year.

Leading the passers is Tobin Rote of Green Bay with 13 completions in 28 attempts for 311 yards and three touchdowns.

On the receiving end, Gene Schroeder of the Chicago Bears is on top with 18 completions for 254 yards and three touchdowns. Lou Groza of Cleveland, although he hasn't scored a touchdown, still is the best point getter with 25, garnered from seven extra points and six field goals.

In other departments, Horace Gillom of Cleveland leads the punters with a 48.2 average; Woody Lewis of the Los Angeles Rams has the best punt return average, 23.3, while Ed Bavel of the Philadelphia Eagles and Ed Kiesel of Pittsburgh are tied for the lead in snaring enemy passes with four interceptions each.

Ohio Office Candidates Take Political Spotlight

Lausche Plugs For Truck Tax; Dirksen Stumps For Bricker

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Candidates for state offices have grasped the Ohio political spotlight as the election campaign enters the stretch drive.

The Ohio office seekers assume this role after presidential and vice-presidential candidates of both major parties wound up the brunt of their campaigning for the state's 25 electoral votes in the Nov. 4 election.

Democrats and Republicans have summoned out - of - state political figures for help in their campaigns. Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, an unsuccessful contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, is working for the election of Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo and state office seekers. DiSalle is trying to unseat Sen. John W. Bricker, a Republican.

Bricker and the GOP slate in turn are being aided by Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, one of Sen. Robert A. Taft's major supporters for the GOP presidential nomination.

And Gov. Frank J. Lausche, though indirectly, brought two prominent Republican leaders into his campaign Tuesday night. A Democrat, Lausche wants an unprecedented fourth term.

Speaking in Fremont, the governor said commercial trucking interests are opposing his proposal for a ton-mile tax on trucks using Ohio highways. Lausche said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York accused trucking firms of placing "inexcusable pressure on legislators" to oppose a ton-mile tax in New York.

Lausche quoted Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania as saying trucks cause highways to break down 16 times faster than do private cars. Dewey and Duff are Republicans.

Lausche's opponent in the governor's race, Republican Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, said in Warren Tuesday night:

"The Democratic governor beats the truckers on the head—that does not build one foot of highway."

Taft, denying he had courted the support of Ohio's trucking interests, said "they are for me because I have set up the first initial program in four years for making our highways safe and adequate quickly."

In the U. S. senator's race, DiSalle told the Northeastern Ohio Restaurant Owners Association "I make only one promise:

"If elected, I probably will not be rated the best senator Ohio ever had, but no senator will work harder in the interest of the people of Ohio and the nation to provide sound government and everlasting peace."

In deploring "half truths and name-calling," DiSalle said President Truman "probably has not called either (Sen. Robert) Taft or (Gen. Dwight) Eisenhower anything they didn't call each other before the Republican convention."

Bricker made no speech Tuesday night before joining a Republican caravan of state office seekers to tour Southern and Eastern Ohio.

Included in the GOP junket will be Charles Taft, John W. Brown, candidate for lieutenant governor; Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, candidate for state auditor; State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy; Attorney General C. William O'Neill; Supreme Court Judge James Garfield Stewart, and Francis B. Douglass, candidate for Supreme Court judge.

At Akron Tuesday night Dirksen said Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, "has been saying he wants no part of corruption. But what does he know about it when he hasn't done much to relieve corruption in his own state of Illinois?"

At Canton, Dirksen said war was the only way Democrats could keep their 'counterfeit economies operating.'

Today's campaign schedule shows Gov. Lausche speaking at Bucyrus and Upper Sandusky with a night speech scheduled for Marion.

Thursday, Lausche goes to Cleveland and returns to Columbus to address the Young Democratic Club Friday night. Saturday he will speak in Hillsboro, Batavia, Georgetown, West Union and Waverly.

Today, Taft and Sen. Bricker join the GOP caravan for appearances in Circleville, Hillsboro, Bethel, West Union and Portsmouth. Taft will leave the caravan Thursday and Friday for meetings in Cleveland.

Bricker will remain with the campaign group as it travels Thursday to Ironton, Gallipolis, Pomeroy, Jackson, Waverly and Chillicothe. Friday the caravan goes to McArthur, Glouster, Logan, New Lexington and Cambridge. Its Saturday stops include Woodsfield, Caldwell, McConnellsville, Marietta and Zanesville.

DiSalle will address the Sandusky Lions Club at noon today, speak at a students' rally at Bowling Green State University this afternoon and attend a Putnam County Democratic dinner in Ottawa this evening.

Thursday DiSalle has scheduled talks at St. Marys, Kenton and Defiance, with Friday appearances in Akron and Barberton.

Sen. Kefauver enters the state today for speeches at Lima, Dayton, Martins Ferry and Cadiz. Thursday he will attend an ox roast at Wellsville and make a TV appearance in Cleveland. Kefauver and Rep. Harold Cooley

It's Time NOW to Prepare Christmas Mail for Overseas

The U. S. Post Office has just announced that the period for accepting parcel post Christmas packages for members of the armed forces abroad is Oct. 15 to Nov. 15. Air parcel post packages may be mailed up to Nov. 25. Early mailing is vital to insure delivery by Christmas. Packages for Navy and Marine Corps personnel in remote posts should be mailed not later than Oct. 15. Diagrammed above are important instructions to follow in packaging and mailing. Note especially the "length-plus-girth" limitation on size. Christmas greeting cards for overseas servicemen should be sent first-class and not later than Nov. 15. Airmail cards may be sent up to Dec. 1.

(D-N, C.) seek to win the Ohio farm vote for the Democrats.

Cooley speaks at Greenville today and at McConnellsville Thursday.

Mrs. Harriett Bricker, wife of Sen. Bricker and Mrs. Eleanor Taft, wife of Charles Taft, will visit Northwest Ohio next Friday and Saturday. They will go to Bowling Green, Napoleon, Bryan and Defiance on Friday and Paulding, Ottawa and Mount Vernon on Saturday.

Apple Growers Told Of Advertising Need

With only eight attending, area apple growers met in the Salem public library Tuesday night and held a general discussion on the benefits of apple advertising.

The meeting was scheduled for growers of Columbiana, Mahoning, Stark and Carroll Counties, but most were unable to attend because they were still harvesting their crops.

Howard Wells, manager of the Ohio Apple Institute, told of the progress and increased sales the National Apple Institute has made in advertising apples, and cited the benefits the local producers could receive through advertising.

The district apple crop was reported to be only 50 per cent of a normal crop, but of excellent quality. Demand and prices were reported to be good, prices ranging from $3 to $5 per bushel depending on variety.

Most of the local varieties were said to be bringing $3.50.

Bigamy Charged To "Investment Broker"

LISBON, O. (AP) — Former Mrs. Larue Mooney of East Liverpool has charged her bridegroom of a month with bigamy. He is Melvin L. Snelling, previously accused of selling Canadian gold mine stock without a license.

Snelling, 44, was in jail on the first charge when Mrs. Mooney filed the bigamy complaint, saying he had another wife when they were married here Sept. 12. She identified the other wife as Mrs. Agnes V. Snelling of Huntington Park, Calif., and also said Snelling had married a Kay Storr of Seattle, Wash., who obtained an annulment.

Snelling, also known as Tommie Lon Wingate, described himself as a San Francisco and Canfield, O., investment broker. He is being held in Mahoning County jail at Youngstown.

Mrs. Mooney also has started annulment proceedings.

Ohio CIO Group Urges Critical Housing Tag Be Continued

WASHINGTON (AP)—A CIO delegation Tuesday urged that several Ohio cities be kept on the critical defense housing area list.

The four-man group also asked government officials to take steps to meet housing needs in these communities.

The government two weeks ago declared Akron, Canton, Columbus, Youngstown, Warren, and Sandusky—together with areas around them—critical and eligible for full-scale rent control.

Opposition to the critical tag has arisen in Akron, Stark County and Warren. The Akron City Council had voted to decontrol rents.

Leo Goodman, director of the CIO National Housing Committee, told a news conference "organized real estate interests are conducting a campaign to decontrol Ohio's major cities" and that "they are using Akron as a spearhead."

The delegation comprised E. V. Film of Canton, president of the Stark County CIO Industrial Council; James E. Mason of Canton, field representative of the CIO Steelworkers Union; Sam Camens of Youngstown, treasurer of the Mahoning County CIO Council; and would-be workers away from jobs in expanding defense plants in these areas.

... says Vernon Hanson, Vernon Hanson Lumber Co., Creswell, Oregon

"We operate over rough off-the-road areas and haul big loads in all kinds of weather," says Mr. Hanson. "Our work is plenty rough on trucks, but our Dodge 'Job-Rated' truck can really take it."

"We've found, for example, that we haul bigger payloads without overloading in a Dodge. Our maintenance cost is exceptionally low, too, and this pays off in extra economical operation."

"And Dodges are sure dependable, day in and day out they really put out the work. Yes ... for tough hauling jobs, we like Dodge trucks!"

CASE of the CURIOUS COW

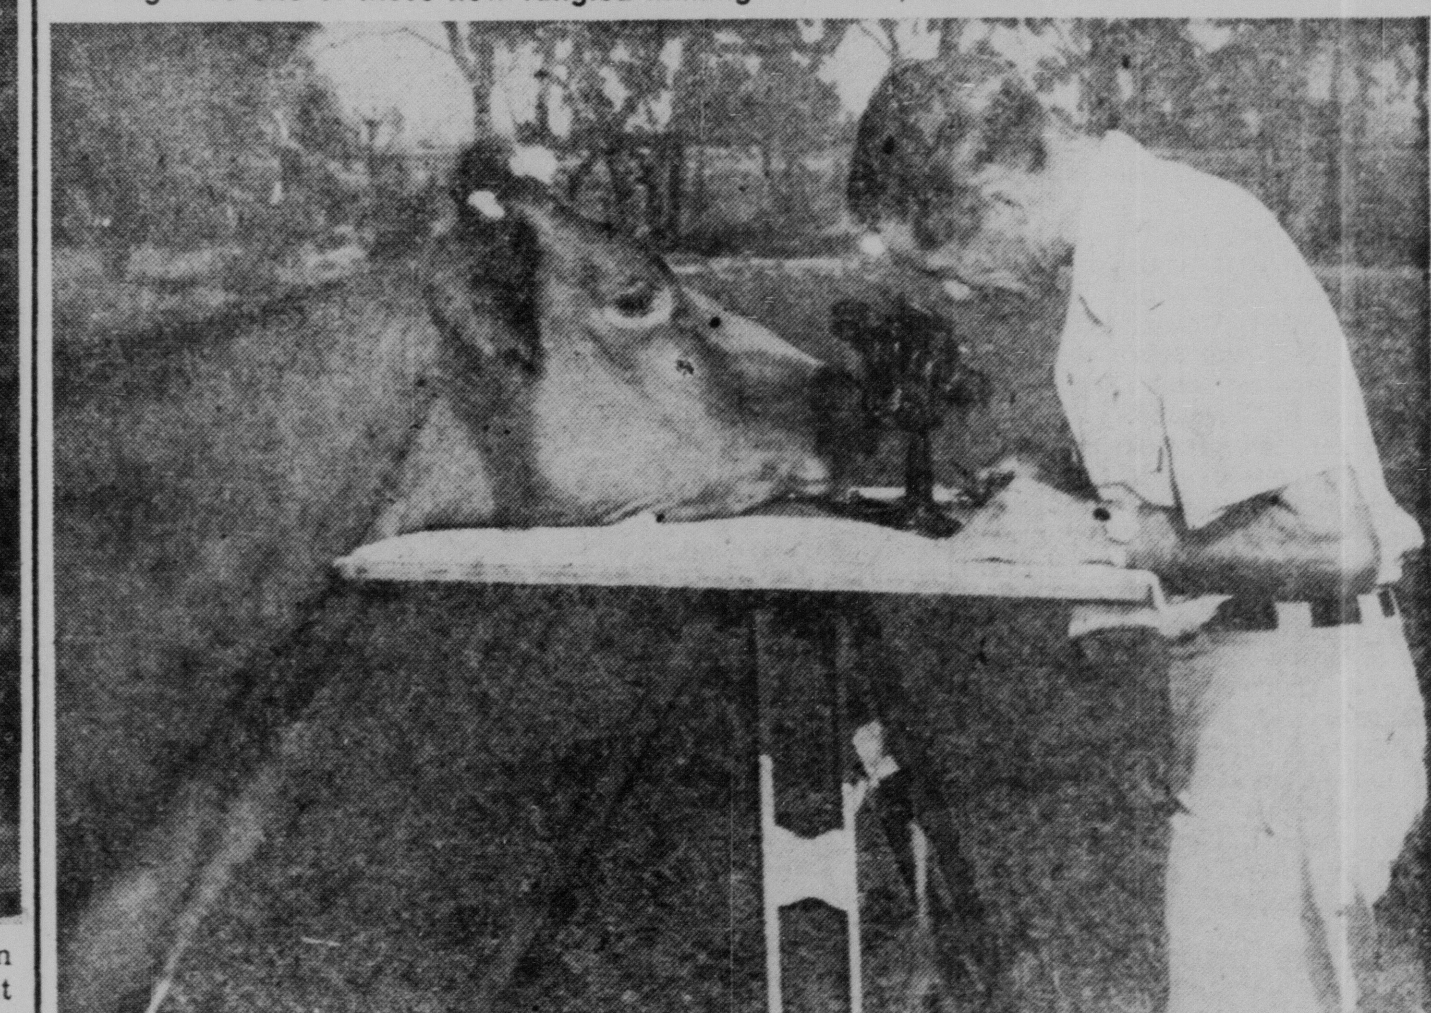

ON A FARM near Red Bluff, Calif., there's an inquisitive red cow that's still wondering what that stranger was doing in her pasture. He wasn't one of the farm hands from the neighborhood and he carried the funniest looking apparatus with him. If she could talk, she would have found out that the stranger was Jerome Kundert, a surveyor who was running a line for the Bureau of Reclamation's projected 120-mile Tahama-Colusa irrigation canal in California's Central valley. The canal will help service 205,000 arid acres.

"What's he doing here in the pasture? He doesn't look like a farmer. What's that thing?"

"It might be one of those new-fangled milking machines, but how does he make it work?"

"Maybe it's something to eat. I'll just sniff it. It feels cold, but doesn't taste very good."

Atomic Artillery Gun Unveiled

Army Seeks Share Of Nuclear Materials

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md. (AP) — Secretary Frank Pace, in an unveiling ceremony today for the first atomic artillery gun, said the Army is seeking to have a "proper share" of nuclear materials earmarked for its use.

Pace set forth the Army's claim to allotment of fissionable material in an address prepared for delivery at a demonstration of the 280-millimeter, all-purpose gun and three of the latest model tanks. The Army secretary said:

"The Army believes strongly in the concept and doctrine underlying the application of atomic energy to the battlefield. We have, therefore, exerted strong efforts to insure that a proper share of our national stockpile of fissionable materials is fabricated and earmarked for such use."

The phrasing used by Pace left open the question of whether the Army actually has any atomic ammunition to use in the big, mobile weapon. Blueprints drawn in 1944 envisioned it as a general purpose gun for firing conventional projectiles, but the design was changed in 1949 to provide also for use of nuclear fission shells.

Details of the new gun became known two weeks ago when reporters and photographers saw it maneuver and fire in demonstrations here. Invited to today's ceremony were members of congress and officials of the several companies that collaborated in development and manufacture of the gun.

The 280-millimeter gun (a caliber slightly over 11 inches) can fire at targets 20 miles away with what the Army claims is pin-point precision—"four times more accurate at long range than any mobile artillery pieces developed prior to World War II."

IT'S HERE AGAIN—It's still October and already school has been called off on account of snow. School children in Hornell, N. Y., were the lucky kids when a five-hour snowfall blanketed the city, snapped power lines and felled trees. However, with the power lines out, they were still not able to watch the final game of the World Series played about 200 sunny miles away. School was resumed the following day when the snow melted rapidly and power lines were repaired.

War

Reds with bombs, rockets and flaming gasoline.

Early morning fog provided a swirling mantle of protection as the attacking doughboys scrambled up the steep, sandy slopes of the Chinese outpost.

Allied tanks and artillery roared in support. But the fog cut down the usually savage Chinese mortar fire.

An allied officer at the front said the American casualties were much lighter than yesterday. In Tuesday's opening battle, the GIs reached the crest, only to be hurled back by counterattacking Chinese.

Tunnel Under Positions

On White Horse Mountain, South Korean engineers tunneled under the last three Chinese positions. They planted stacks of land mines, then withdrew.

The mines exploded with a deafening roar and the whole mountain shuddered.

"It just about blew the top off the mountain," said Col. Lim, the South Korean regimental commander.

While the Chinese were stunned, South Korean infantrymen charged with bared bayonets. They captured the first knob easily, the second after four hours, and the third and last after a two-hour fight.

Chinese dead and wounded littered the slopes.

The last Chinese to fight and die on White Horse were the battered remnants of five Red regiments (15,000 men), Lim said. In nine days of bitter, almost-endless fighting the Reds suffered more than 10,000 casualties.

Except for White Horse and Triangle, action was relatively light across the 155-mile battlefield.

The Reds hurled eight light probing attacks at U. N. positions on Finger Ridge, west of the Pukhan River. All were repulsed.

B26 bombers flew through heavy clouds last night in continued attacks on Communist supply lines. Pilots reported 35 trucks destroyed.

Nine B29 Superforts dropped nearly 100 tons of high explosives last night at four troop and supply centers near Wonsan, on the Northeast Korean Coast.

The Far East Air Forces said Allied planes flew well over 1,000 combat sorties yesterday — the third straight day U. N. planes have passed that mark.

Columbia U. Dean Backs Stevenson

NEW YORK (AP)—Politics bubbled anew on the Columbia University campus today as a university administrator came out for Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson despite a suggestion by the university's acting president to Columbia officers to remain silent on the presidential race.

Dean Carl W. Ackerman of the university's graduate School of Journalism announced his support of the Democratic nominee Tuesday night.

It was another in a chorus of pro-Stevenson voices raised at Columbia, whose president, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, is on leave to seek the presidency on the Republican ticket.

Ackerman made his stand known in a telegram to Joseph Pulitzer, president and publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which is supporting Stevenson. It was not made clear why Ackerman directed his telegram to him. Pulitzer's father endowed the School of Journalism.

Ackerman said in part:

"I do not intend to remain silent as long as Gen. Eisenhower is free and unrestricted in his use of the university's name and property for campaign purposes. By using the university's president's house for conferences with Sen. Taft and other Republican supporters he has himself made Columbia University a campaign issue."

"I have told my friends among the Stevenson supporters that silence on political issues is not academic freedom. Therefore, I am announcing my support of Gov. Stevenson."

Texans Can Put Ike's Name In Dem Column

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas attorney general ruled today voters in this state can write the names of GOP nominees Dwight Eisenhower and Richard Nixon in the Democratic column Nov. 4.

They can simply scratch out the names of the Democratic nominees and write in those of the Republican candidates, according to the ruling.

The ruling, requested by Gov. Allan Shivers who has turned against Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson, could be of great significance in this state where Democratic party loyalty carries great weight.

The opinion also said the names of the Republican candidates for president and vice president may also be written in the ballot's write-in column.

LISBON—Sheriff Howard J. Clark and Patrolman Leon Zahndt this morning were called to perform a task not usually a part of their everyday routines.

Their normal schedules were disrupted by a telephone call informing them that two-year old Ida Strudthoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Strudthoff of N. Market St., had locked herself in the bathroom at the nearby home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Strudthoff.

The officers rushed to the home, removed a storm window, raised and removed a storm window and lifted Ida's older sister through the aperture to unlock the door.

Ida was instructed to forego her modesty in the future and leave the door open.
